

Ok folks lets get real. Satalite radio is here to stay as far as I am conserved. So why shouldnt they have the same rights as the dummys who are filling most of the air waves full of commercials. Oh well just another ssuccess and now the big boys want to hold them down. I ssupport the rights of XM radio for the simple fact that they have a superior service than any commercial radio I have ever heard.